Article 1

INSTITUTION AND ORGANISATION OF IKF MATCHES

- 1.1. The Council of the IKF is the sole body authorised to institute international championships and other IKF matches organised at regular intervals.
- 1.2. The Exco shall establish separate competition rules for each IKF match or IKF match series. The rules for each of these matches or match series shall be listed in an appendix to these Competition Regulations.
- 1.3. The Exco is empowered to commission a national organisation, with that national organisation's agreement, to organise one or more IKF matches or an IKF tournament in accordance with conditions laid down by the Exco. In the event of one or more IKF matches or an IKF tournament being played as part of an event comprising other sports, the Exco can commission the organisation of those matches to be carried out in co-operation with the organisers of that event.
- 1.4. The conditions laid down in clause 3 above may concern:
 - a) the liability of the national organisation to bear the costs of the organisation, of IKF officials and of participants and the payment to the IKF of a set sum and/or a part of the takings of the national organisation;
 - b) the IKF's complete or partial retention of sections of the organisation and the profits and losses attached to it;
 - c) other items connected with the organisation, such as accommodation, advertising and publicity, equipment, ceremonies and facilities for the benefit of participants, officials, spectators and the publicity media.

- 1.6. The Exco is empowered to withdraw a commission as defined in clause 1.3 above if it is of the opinion that either
 - a) the conditions laid down are not being, or will not be, adhered to or
 - b) that an insufficient number of entries has been received, or
 - c) that other urgent reasons require it to take this action.
- 1.7. When a commission has been withdrawn or a commissioned match or tournament has not taken place or is abandoned, the organising national organisation can make no claims against the IKF or demand any financial compensation for expenses incurred in connection with the organisation.

Article 2

PARTICIPATION IN IKF TOURNAMENTS AND MATCH SERIES

- 2.1. The IKF Exco shall decide who shall be eligible to participate in any IKF Tournament or Match Series.
- 2.2. The Exco may delegate its powers under this article to a continental federation or the Competitions Committee.
- 2.3.
 - a) The Exco determines the date by which an entry for an IKF match, IKF match series or Tournament must be received and also the date(s) by which further information must be provided.

- b) When the entry is in respect of club teams, the national organisations concerned are obliged to pass on immediately all the information received from the Exco to all the clubs eligible for participation; entries must be submitted through the national organisation.
 - c) The Exco may determine that an entry only becomes effective after the IKF has received an entry fee and/or deposit. The deposit will be reimbursed when the team has played the match or has participated in the match series until the end.
- 2.4. The Exco may accept an entry received after the date as referred to in clause 2.3 a) above on the understanding that the national organisation concerned, or its club, is liable to pay a fine as laid down in article 12 of the Disciplinary Procedures.
 - 2.5. A national organisation or club, when cancelling an entry, is liable to pay a fine, as laid down in article 12.4 (b) of the Disciplinary Procedures. If an entry is cancelled, any entry fee paid, or scheduled to be paid, by the national organisation or club shall be forfeited.

 - 2.9. When a match or match series has not taken place or is abandoned, the participating teams can make no claims against the IKF, the organising national organisation or other parties, for expenses incurred, or to be incurred, in connection with their participation.
 - 2.10. All arrangements concerning the payment of the travelling and lodging expenses of the participating teams and their accompanying officials participating in an IKF match or match series, together with the payment of any costs of participation, will be made by the participating teams unless the Exco decides differently.

 - 2.12. Any team playing matches outside its own country's borders shall ensure that it has taken out medical insurance to cover any illness or accident that may occur whilst its team(s) or representatives are visiting another country for the purpose or participating in matches whether as a player, coach, team manager or other official.

Article 3

PLAYERS' RIGHT OF PLAY

- 3.1 With due observance to clauses 3.2 to 3.9 inclusive of this article, each national organisation determines the right of its players to play in teams belonging to that national organisation and its member clubs. In this respect a national organisation's regulations shall be recognized by the IKF and the other national organisations. If there is a conflict between a national organisation's regulations and these IKF regulations, then for any IKF official, recognised or patronaged match or match series the IKF regulations shall apply.
- 3.2 A team representing an IKF Member in an official IKF ranking match or match series may only be comprised of players who are qualified to play for that recognised IKF Member in accordance with the requirements of clauses 3.3 and 3.4. For matches or match series that are not official IKF ranking matches then clause 3.7 shall apply. To play for a club in an official IKF match or match series then clause 3.8 shall apply.

3.3 Eligibility to Play in an official IKF Ranking event as listed in the appendix. (Note: The Council may modify the list of events in the appendix provided that at least six months notice is given).

3.3.1 To represent an IKF Member in an official IKF Ranking event as listed in the appendix a player must comply with one of the following three clauses (a), (b) or (c): -

- (a) (i) According to the laws of the country to which the Member belongs, the player is a citizen of that country or was born in the country
- or (ii) According to the laws of the country to which the Member belongs has a parent or grandparent who was born in the country.

(b) Where the IKF Member is a region or part of a larger national state and the player's passport shows that he is a citizen of that state, then the player is eligible to play as follows:

He must have a current passport of the larger national state and he must provide proof that

Either (i) that he was born in the area/region concerned or that one of his parents or grandparents were born in the area/region concerned.

Or (ii) At the time of application in accordance with rule 3.3.2 he has continually resided (as defined in clause 3.6) in the area or region covered by the larger national state (as defined by the laws of that state) for a minimum period of three years (two years for Junior or Youth players) or the length of the country's IKF membership, whichever is the lesser.

Or (iii) At the time of application in accordance with rule 3.3.2 he is not currently residing in the area or region covered by the larger national state (as defined by the laws of that state) but has resided previously for a minimum period of seven years or has been in primary or secondary education for a period of at least five years in the area or region covered by the larger national state.

(c) If the player does not qualify under (a) or (b) then he can apply to the Exco for permission to play if he can provide proof of both of the following:

(i) That according to the laws of the country of the Member that he wishes to play for, he is eligible to become a citizen of that country

AND

(ii) That he has continually resided (as defined in clause 3.6) in that Member's country for a minimum period of three years (two years for Junior or Youth players) or the length of the country's IKF membership, whichever is the lesser.

3.3.2 To qualify using the provisions of 3.3.1 (a) (ii) or (b) or (c) an application must be made in accordance with the following timescale:

- (i) if the event is an IKF Ranking event as listed in the appendix - at least three months before the player wishes to play for the first time
- (ii) for all other events - at least six weeks before the player wishes to play for the first time.

All necessary documentary proof must be sent with the application.

3.3.3 Any documents required to prove the status of any requirement made in clause 3.3.1 above shall be provided by the IKF Member concerned and at its expense.

3.3.4 Once a player has been given permission to play in an official IKF event as listed in the appendix and the player plays in that event, the player is not required to re-submit an application for future events. Furthermore, the player is deemed to be tied to the country concerned (except in accordance with clause 3.4) and his status shall not be affected if the original application was made on residential grounds in accordance with 3.3.1 (b) or (c) and the player subsequently changes his residence.

3.4 Dual-Nationality – where a player has dual nationality then he is allowed to elect which of the two Members he wishes to play for. Once he has played in an official IKF event as listed in the appendix for one Member then he may not, except in the circumstances listed in 3.4.1, play for another Member in the future in an official IKF event.

3.4.1 If, in accordance with 3.3.1 above, a player holds the nationality of two members – A and B – and member B was not a member of the IKF when the player played for member A in an official IKF Ranking event as listed in the appendix then, if an explicit request is made to the Exco within three years of member B being granted IKF membership, and provided that he has not played in an official IKF Ranking event as listed in the appendix for member A since IKF membership was granted to member B, then the Exco shall have the power to allow the player to transfer his allegiance to, and subsequently play for, member B. Once such permission is granted the player's transfer is irrevocable.

3.5 If a player has represented a Member country in an official IKF World or Continental Championship (final or qualification round) and the IKF subsequently grants membership to an area or region of that country instead, then the player is allowed to choose which country he can subsequently play for in accordance with 3.3.1 (b) above. Once such option has been made then the player's choice is irrevocable.

3.6 Definition of Continual Residence – has spent the required period living and clearly based at an address in the country concerned and at the time of application under the terms of 3.3.2 is still currently living and clearly based at an address in the country concerned. (Holidays and short periods outside the country up to 20% of the qualifying period shall be allowed).

3.7 Eligibility to play in non-ranking matches or match series, e.g. friendly international matches and recognised or patronised events

3.7.1 A player must satisfy the requirements of clause 3.3.

3.7.2 In addition, unless the rules of the match or events specifically state otherwise, the following shall also apply: -

(a) Upon explicit request to the Exco, up to two players per team who have already played in an official IKF Ranking match or match series as listed in the appendix for another Member, or who are qualified to play for another member, may play provided they meet the requirements of clause 3.3.1 and the competition rules of the event concerned allow it.

- (b) Players with dual nationality may play for their 'second' Member country even if they have already played in an official IKF Ranking match or match series as listed in the appendix for their 'first' Member country.

3.7.3 Players who play in accordance with clauses 3.7.1 or 3.7.2 above may play in such matches or events without compromising their eligibility to play for another Member in a future official IKF Ranking match or match series as listed in the appendix should they be qualified to do so.

3.8 Eligibility to play in Club events

3.8.1 Any Club participating in an official IKF match or match series must be a member club of an IKF Member.

3.8.2 Unless the match or competition rules state otherwise, to take part in an official IKF match or match series a player must have been a bona fide, registered member of that club for a minimum period of 3 months. If required, Members will be required to certify that this condition has been met. Infringements of this rule may lead to sanctions being taken against the IKF Member as well as the club concerned.

3.9 Minimum age limits

3.9.1 Any team taking part in a team in any international (or international club or inter-league) match or match series may only include players who have attained the age of 16 years on the day of the match or, if the match is part of a match series, on the first day of that series.

3.9.2 If the match or match series is for players up to 21 years old, the age mentioned under 3.9.1 is lowered to 15 years.

3.9.3 If the match or match series is for players up to 19 years old, the age mentioned under 3.9.1 is lowered to 14 years.

3.9.4 If the match or match series is for players up to 16 years old, the age mentioned under 3.9.1 is lowered to 12 years.

3.10 Power of the IKF Exco

3.10.1 The IKF Exco shall have the power to rule upon any situation apparently not covered in Article 3.

3.10.2 The IKF Exco may, in exceptional circumstances, relax the minimum age limits laid down in clause 3.9 or any other matters concerning eligibility. The IKF Exco shall have sole discretion as to what may be deemed "exceptional circumstances".

3.10.3 Decisions made under this clause 3.10 are not subject to appeal.

Article 4

MATCHES AGAINST TEAMS OF UNAFFILIATED ORGANISATIONS

4.1. Previous Exco permission is required for the organisation and the playing of a match against a team of an unaffiliated organisation.

4.2. If this permission is not obtained and the match is nonetheless organised or played, the Exco may report the matter to the authorised disciplinary body.

Article 5

REPORTING OF FRIENDLY INTERNATIONAL MATCHES

- 5.1. A national organisation planning to organise a friendly international match, is obliged to report to the Exco the date, place and time of the match at least three months before the date of the match.
- 5.2. In the event of such reporting not being done on time, the organising national organisation may be liable to a fine as laid down in article 12.3 of the IKF Disciplinary Procedures.

Article 6

LIST OF PLAYERS FOR IKF MATCHES

- 6.1. The Exco determines in respect of each IKF match or IKF match series whether a list of players qualified to take part in the match or match series is required and to whom it should be sent. If a list is required, the permitted maximum number of players and team officials that may be listed shall be specified together with the date for submission. This information shall be included in the event's rules.
- 6.2. If required as per clause 1 of this article, each participating team must submit on an official IKF Information Form (a 'long list') containing the names of any players that they want to include in their final team. The list should include each player's family name, first name and (except for a club event) the type of document being used to prove eligibility in accordance with Art. 3. The colours of the two or more sets of costumes to be worn (see article 9 below) should also be listed together with the name of the trainer/coach and team manager. This IKF Information Form ('long list') must be returned to the IKF Office by the date set down in accordance with clause 6.1 above.
- 6.3. If the use of a list of players is required then a Final Players' Declaration Form needs to be completed and sent in accordance with the dates set down in the event's rules. This form shall list the team's final selection which has been made from the list of players submitted on the IKF Information Form mentioned in clause 6.2 above. Only those players named in the above 'long list' are entitled to play in the team for the match or match series in question. On this final form the numbers in which they will play, the names of the coach, team manager and any other officials accompanying the team who may wish to sit on the team bench must be included. (A maximum 3 may sit on the bench in any match). The colours of all of the sets of costumes (see article 9) also have to be given and this will require digital photos of the shirts (see clause 9.2).

If required in the event's rules a digital, passport size, photograph of each player listed in this Final list, wearing one of the team costumes, needs to be submitted as well.

In an emergency a player listed in this Final Players' Declaration Form may be replaced up until the time the list is signed off at the pre-event meeting between the Team Managers and the Jury. However, the replacement player must be allocated a different number from the player being replaced.

No changes or additions to the list of players can be made after the list is signed off at the pre-event meeting between the Team Managers and the Jury.

- 6.4. Prior to the start of the match, the Jury shall compare the names on the match form with those on the players list and record any discrepancies on the match form. In the absence of a Jury this task shall be undertaken by the referee.

- 6.5. Any national organisation or club infringing the provisions of this article is liable to pay a fine, as laid down in article 12.3 of the IKF Disciplinary Procedures.
- 6.6. The Exco or the Jury will report any unauthorised players taking part in a match to the authorised disciplinary body.

Article 7 MEETINGS

- 7.1. Before any IKF event a meeting shall be held between the Jury and the team managers or other representatives of the participating teams. Apart from clause 7.2 below, the main purpose of the meeting shall be to brief the teams about the rules of the competition and any other matters that will assist the smooth running of the event. Attendance by a team's manager or representative at this, or any subsequent, meeting is obligatory and any failure to attend shall incur a fine as per article 12.3 of the IKF Disciplinary Procedures.
- 7.2. At the pre-tournament meeting of the team leaders with the Jury, teams shall mutually agree contrasting colour choices for each game. If necessary a contrast of colours must be in both shirts and shorts/skirts. Should they be unable to mutually agree their colours then the chairman of the Jury will toss with the winner choosing their colour first. The other team must then choose a contrasting colour.
- 7.3. A pre-event meeting shall also be held between the Chairman of the Jury and the appointed referees and assistants.
- 7.4. Further meetings may be held during the event should this be deemed to be necessary by the Jury.

Article 8 MATCH FORM

- 8.1. At friendly international matches, the team managers or team captains are obliged to ensure that a match form, available from the IKF secretariat, is completed correctly and in full and is shown to the referee before the match. The match form shall show the starting players and the names of any possible substitutes.
- 8.2. In IKF matches or match series, every team is obliged to fill up an official IKF 'Team list' form and submit it to the Jury before each game that is to be played by that team. The amount of time before each match and how the form shall be submitted shall be announced at the pre-event meeting between the Team Managers and the Jury. The list of eligible players shall be pre-printed on the form, together with their shirt number, based on the information signed off at the pre-event meeting between the Team Managers and the Jury. Against the name of each player each team will need to indicate A or D depending upon whether the player is in the first attack (A) or first defence (D). All other players listed on the form will be automatically deemed to be substitutes unless their name is crossed out. The name of the coach and other officials wishing to sit on the team bench for the match in question must also be listed. The colours to be worn for the match in question also need to be inserted.
- 8.3. Within five minutes after the end of the match, the team captain is obliged to complete both fully and accurately his part of the match form, before handing it to the referee.
- 8.4. The referee then completes his part of the match form and writes down all match rule infringements and irregularities which have occurred before, during or after the match. He is obliged to follow up this annotation with a more detailed statement. This statement shall be sent to the Exco within 48 hours or - in the case of a match in an IKF tournament - handed to the Jury within one hour of the end of the match. For a yellow card, encoding the match form with the appropriate disciplinary code shall be deemed sufficient. Red cards resulting from two yellow cards given in the same match to the same person shall be encoded as two separate yellow cards.

- 8.5. The team captain and the members of his team concerned are deemed to have noted the referee's annotation. Through the annotation of the referee the infringements and irregularities mentioned in clause 4 are submitted for consideration by the authorised disciplinary body.
- 8.6. The referee hands the match form, after having put his signature to it, to the team manager or team captain of the opposing party or to the technical delegate or the Jury, who will then ensure that the form is in the hands of the IKF secretariat no later than two weeks after the match.
- 8.7. A fine, as laid down in article 12.3 of the Disciplinary Procedures, shall be levied on any national organisation or club failing to comply with the provisions of this article.

Article 9 COSTUMES

- 9.1. For an IKF match or match series, each team shall have at least 2 sets of costume (shirts and skirts/shorts) in different basic colours and each set shall be numbered as required below in clause 2. All members of the teams shall wear matching costumes. Garments worn visibly under the team strip must be of the same basic colour as the shorts or skirts.
- 9.2. Each participating organisation shall notify the IKF secretariat no later than the time laid down in article 6.2 of the major and reserve colours of its team. This shall normally be done by using the relevant section on the IKF Information Form referred to in article 6. Digital photographs of each of the team colours shall be submitted with the form.
- 9.3. At IKF matches each player of a team must wear a shirt bearing a number on the back which is specific to him/her. Shirt numbers must be clearly visible and shall contrast sufficiently from the basic shirt colours. At IKF matches each player must also wear the same number (at least 10 cm high) on the front of the shirt or on the front of the shorts/skirt. During an IKF match series, players may only wear the number declared to the Jury prior to the start of the match series and this number must be the same for all shirt colours.
- 9.4. Sponsorship advertising may be permitted on the shirt in accordance with article 20. This advertising must also comply with the rules and conditions of the host broadcasters and the Government of the organising country.
- 9.5. In the event of a reasonable request by TV personnel concerning the teams' colours, the Jury may instruct one or both teams to comply with such a request.
- 9.6. A fine, as laid down in article 12.3 of the Disciplinary Procedures, shall be levied on any national organisation or club failing to comply with the provisions of this article.

Article 10 ARBITRATION

- 10.1. For every IKF match, match series and friendly international match, the IKF Referees Committee shall appoint a referee or referees from the IKF list of referees.
- 10.2. The Exco may, in consultation with the Referees Committee, allow the organisers of a friendly international match to themselves invite an IKF referee and assistant referee, followed by notification to the Exco.

- 10.3. No referee from one of the two countries directly concerned in a friendly international match can be appointed as the referee for that friendly match unless this is requested by both national organisations involved.
- 10.4. If requested to do so, the Referees Committee shall also appoint from the list of IKF referees an assistant referee for an IKF match or friendly international match.
- 10.5. In a match series, the Exco will invite referees to control one or more games during the series.
- 10.6. When the Referees Committee so requests, the Exco shall call upon one or more national organisations to appoint an assistant referee for an IKF match, or friendly international match, from the IKF list of referees and/or from that/those national organisation(s)' list of referees. In the case of a match series, more than one assistant referee may be requested and such assistants may be required for more than one day.
- 10.7. The Exco shall inform the referees and assistant referees of their appointment and shall notify the organisers accordingly.
- 10.8. In a match series, the IKF Referees Committee shall appoint the referees and assistant referees for each game from the above lists of invited referees and assistant referees. The committee will also appoint a reserve referee whose task shall be to oversee the team benches and supervise time-outs and substitutions in cooperation with the Jury. In the event of the match referee or assistant referee being unable to continue through illness, injury or other cause, the reserve referee shall take his place.
- 10.9. If it depends on the results of earlier games in the tournament which teams will play a particular game and only one representative of the Referees Committee is present, then the appointments of the referee and assistant referees for that game shall be made by this representative in consultation with the Jury mentioned under article 13. If no representative of the Referees Committee is present then the Jury shall appoint. In principle a neutral referee will be appointed for each game. The IKF Referees Committee and the Jury may, however, deviate from this rule. All referees and assistant referees shall be informed of their appointments at the earliest opportunity.
- 10.10. If IKF matches or friendly international matches are played in a tournament, the Referees Committee may confine itself to drawing up a list of appointed referees and assistants, leaving the final choice for each individual match or a number of matches, to the Jury (or in the case of friendly matches to the organisers) in consultation with any members of the Referees Committee then present.

Article 11

REFEREES' AND ASSISTANT REFEREES' EXPENSES

- 11.1. In respect of IKF matches or match series, unless stated otherwise in the regulations governing the match or match series, the travel expenses incurred by referees will be reimbursed by the IKF in accordance with any guidelines laid down by the Exco. Claims must be submitted to the IKF secretariat within one month of the end of the match or match series. As soon as the accounts have been approved the secretariat will arrange payment.
- 11.2. In the case of IKF matches or match series, local travel, food and accommodation of referees shall be provided and paid for by the organisation hosting the matches or match series.
- 11.3. In the case of a friendly international match the travel and accommodation expenses of referees and any assistant referees will be reimbursed by the national organisation responsible for the organisation of the match. The IKF Exco may adopt a resolution stating that a part of these expenses shall be borne by the IKF.

- 11.4. With respect to the expenses of assistant referees, all travel and accommodation expenses of assistant referees shall be provided and paid for by the organisation hosting the matches or match series. Different arrangements for the payment of travel expenses may be made by the Exco if the assistant referees were requested by the IKF under article 8.6 above and are not from the same national organisation as the organisers of an event.

Article 12

REPLACEMENT OF REFEREE OR ASSISTANT REFEREE

- 12.1. In the event of an appointed referee for an IKF match or friendly international match not being present fifteen minutes before the stipulated hour of commencement of the match, or at some time during the match is not able to continue his task, he will be replaced successively by:
- a. the appointed reserve referee;
 - b. an appointed assistant referee who is an IKF referee;
 - c. another IKF referee;
 - d. another referee acceptable to both team captains.
- 12.2. Except in the case where a reserve referee is appointed, when an appointed assistant referee has to be replaced, the referee appoints the replacement.
- 12.3. In the event of a situation, as referred to in clauses 1 and 2, occurring at an IKF match at which a Jury functions, then the Jury is responsible for the replacement procedure in consultation with any Referees Committee members then present.

Article 13

Article 22

RANKING OF TEAMS IN IKF MATCH SERIES

- 22.1. Rankings and results of matches Unless the Competition Rules specifically state otherwise, in all IKF events each match is played so that a winner is determined. When the scores are level after 60 minutes (or such time as listed in accordance with art 21.12) the winner is determined by the use of a 'golden goal' as described in the appendix. If there is no winner after the 'golden goal' period then the winner shall be determined by the taking of penalties. The procedure for this is also shown in the appendix.

If group matches are used in a Tournament, the ranking within a group shall be determined as follows: -

- For a win in normal time the winning team shall earn 3 points.
- For a win after a "golden goal", or penalties following a "golden goal", then the winning team shall earn 2 points and the losing team 1 point.
- Ranking shall be determined according to the number of points earned (highest to lowest).

22.2. Determination of ranking when teams are level on points

- Two teams equal on points – the result of the match between those teams shall determine the ranking.
- Three teams equal on points – the ranking shall be determined by applying the conditions below in order. If at any time whilst applying these conditions one team can be ranked but the other two teams are still equal, then the condition above for ranking two equal teams shall be used.
 - A new ranking table based on the matches between the equal teams shall be drawn up. Points scored, and then if equal goal difference, according to the new table shall be used.
 - If after applying points and goal difference using the new table all three teams are still equal then the following shall be used: -
 - If the ranking is for places 2-4, then each team's goal difference in their match against the 1st ranked team shall be used
 - If the ranking is for places 3-5, then each team's goal difference in their match against the 2nd ranked team shall be used
 - If the ranking is for places 4-6, then each team's goal difference in their match against the 3rd ranked team shall be used
 - If the ranking is for places 1-3, then each team's goal difference in their match against the 4th ranked team shall be used
 - If after applying the goal difference in the prescribed matches above the three teams are still equal, then the same prescribed matches shall be used with goals scored instead of goal difference being used
 - If all three teams still cannot be ranked then a new table based on their half time results shall be used with 2 points given for 'winning' at half time and 1 point given if the score was level. This new table will then be used in the same order of the above stages to determine the ranking, i.e. points; goal difference; goal difference in prescribed matches.
- Four or more teams equal on points – similar principles shall be used and in the same order as for three teams. If at any stage one team is ranked but the others are still equal then the next stage is used until either: - all of the teams are ranked or two teams remain, in which case the condition for two teams shall be used. When using the result of designated matches, as in the provisions for 3 teams it is the result of their matches against the next immediately higher already ranked team that is used (or immediately lower team if 1st place is one of the ranking positions being determined).

- If when using all of the above teams still cannot be ranked then penalties shall be taken.

Article 23

SPORTS BETTING

- 23.1 All participants in an event are required to comply with the Regulations of the IKF with respect to all forms of betting concerning the sport of korfbal. These regulations shall be listed in appendix 3 to these Competition Regulations.
- 23.2 Where a risk of fraud has been established or identified then the IKF may cancel the result/s of the match or matches concerned.

APPENDIX 1

Method of obtaining a result when the scores are level after normal time

If a game has ended in a draw a decision will be obtained by use of a 'golden goal' as described below.

1. If in order to reach a decision a 'golden goal' period has to be played the game will be re-started after a 3-minute interval. Except where any substitutions are made at this time in due accordance with the rules of the game, the players must be those who were playing at the final whistle.
2. The 'Golden goal' period shall operate as follows:
 - (i) The teams shall line up in the same zones and shall attack the same ends as at the start of the match.
 - (ii) A toss will be made to determine which team shall start the 'golden goal' period. For the purposes of this section of the rules the winners of the toss will be referred to as the starting team and the losers of the toss will be referred to as the opposing team.
 - (iii) Provided both teams have had an opportunity to attack (i.e. had possession in the attack zone) then the first team to score shall be the winners.
 - (iv) If the starting team scores in their first attack (i.e. with the opposing team not having had possession in their attack zone) then the opposing team shall have an opportunity to attack and score. The opposing team's attack is considered to be over when possession is obtained by an attack player of the starting team who is standing in his/her own attack zone. In this case the requirement that both teams have had an opportunity to attack has been met with the starting team being declared the winners.
 - (v) If the starting team scores in their first attack and this is matched by the opposing team in their first attack then the game continues with the teams changing zones and the starting team restarting the match. The above provisions about having an opportunity to attack still apply and the game will continue in a similar manner until a winner is achieved.
 - (vi) If there is no winning score after ten minutes of 'golden goal' play (or such time as stated in the individual competition rules) then penalties will be taken as set out below.
3. If in order to reach a decision penalties have to be taken, the 8 players of each team who were playing at the end of the 'golden goal' period shall each take a penalty. Substitutions may still be made provided they are made in due accordance with the rules of the game. The referee will toss a coin to determine which team will start. The winners of the toss will start. All 8 players of the teams concerned will alternately take one penalty each. If both teams have scored an equal number of goals from these penalties, further series of 8 penalties will be taken by the same eight people and in the same order, until a decision has been obtained. If it is clear that a winner has been determined before a complete series of 8 penalties per team has been completed, then the taking of penalties can be terminated. Individual Competition Rules may specify 'sudden death' penalties. Here players from the two teams take penalties alternately as above but the result is decided if at the end of each pair of players one team has scored more than the other.
